

INVITE

Panel Discussion

The Ziada case at The Hague Court of Appeal

Establishing the responsibility of IDF commanders for the bombing of the Ziada family home in Gaza (2014)

Organised by The Nuhanovic Foundation, in cooperation with INTLawyers.org and the International Institute of Social Studies, Erasmus University Rotterdam

Venue: International Institute of Social Studies, Erasmus University Rotterdam (Campus The Hague)
Zoom Livestream

Date & Time: 20th September, 2021 | 6:30 PM - 8 PM CEST

Panellists

- Issam Younis, Director, Al-Mezan Center for Human Rights, from Gaza
- Cedric Ryngaert, Professor of Public International Law and Head of the Department of International and European Law at Utrecht University
- Jeff Handmaker, Associate Professor in Legal Sociology at the International Institute of Social Studies of Erasmus University Rotterdam and Member of International Lawyers (intlawyers.org)
- Kate Clark, Head of Research, Nuhanovic Foundation and PhD candidate at the University of Amsterdam
- Liesbeth Zegveld (TBC), Mr. Ziada's lawyer and Professor of Public International Law at the University of Amsterdam

Moderator

- Frederiek de Vlaming, Director. The Nuhanovic Foundation

Topics of Discussion

- Decision of the District Court of The Hague of the 29th January 2020
- Grounds of appeal
- Access to justice for Palestinians in general and Mr. Ziada in particular
- Functional immunity from jurisdiction under international law
- Q&A session

Registration

- It is mandatory to pre-register for this event. Click on the button below to receive a Zoom link in advance.

REGISTER

Additional Information

- For more information about the case, follow this link.
- For an English translation of the legal documents, follow this link.
- For information on the crowd funding campaign, follow this link.
- To watch a documentary about the case, follow this link.
- For more updates, follow The Nuhanovic Foundation's social media channels:

